

Since I put our number on the do not call list the bothersome phone calls have stopped. I am very happy to be able to sit down to dinner with my family and NOT be disturbed by a telemarketer who cannot take no for an answer. I think it is awful for the FCC to think about changing the New Jersey Do Not call Laws. Give your phone numbers out and see how you enjoy being called all day by telemarketers.